

Noeline Kyle's Seminars, Workshops, And Author Talks, 2015/2016/2017 2017

2017 has been a busy year and it continues...I have presented talks and seminars and workshops, published and launched a book, written and submitted several articles and, as well, I continue my volunteer role at the Kempsey Museum, and support the local community with their writing. In addition, in my role at the Kempsey Museum, I conduct research, write and submit grant supplications and more recently co-curated an exhibition with Julia Morrell at the Slim Dusty Museum.
